		work. Timber all coming on Thursday 17th June. Two S/S Range hoods have been ordered. Discussion ensued on raising money towards the upgrade of the Hall. One suggestion was "Buy a brick" system. A Horsfall will raise this at the Hall Committee meeting.	A Horsfall
3		Other Business The committee wish J Hawthorne all the best, and thank her for all she has done for our Community Committee. She is a great asset to the MDC staff. Time was spent on the Representation Review 2021 document. It is vital that there is feedback, as it depends on the mesh of the population. There will be 1 Maori ward. It is vital that the people elected, are for the community. After a full discussion the Community Committee endorsed the status quo. The feedback form to be sent out to the community. A Williamson asked about representation for the area of Kairanga/Longburn. At the August meeting when we compile the Community Plan the Kairanga/Longburn area will be included. Bainesse/Rangiotu Community Committee would like to congratulate Mrs B Cameron on her achievement of QSM. A letter to be sent. Cycleway progressing as they have now put a submission to MDC for inclusion into the 10 year plan. Supper will be provided for the August meeting.	A Sterling A Sterling All committee
4		Council Matters
		Update from Liaison Councillor on current MDC activities. Cr S Casey addressed: T Donaldson wrote a private submission to MDC regarding the spillway from Feilding that if built, could cause severe flooding downstream. Cr S Casey suggested that an elected councillor from Horizons be invited. Mr Gordon or Mr Turkington could address this invitation.
