MANAGEMENT ACT 1991

SECTIONAL DISTRICT PLAN REVIEW PLAN CHANGE 64: BOARDING, BREEDING & TRAINING KENNELS

NOTICE OF DECISION

On 17 September 2019, the Manawatū District Council Hearings Committee made a decision on Proposed Plan Change 64 to the Manawatū District Plan.

Proposed Plan Change 64 was a review of boarding, breeding and training kennels within the District. Specific changes included:

1. Introduction of a new chapter 3H: Boarding, Breeding and Training Kennels which includes a new issue, objective, policies and rules for the management of boarding, breeding and training kennels.
2. Remove the existing definition of 'kennels' in the District Plan.
3. Inserting a new definition for 'boarding, breeding and training kennels'.
4. Consequential amendments to definitions which already contain reference to kennels (inserting the words 'boarding, breeding and training' before the word 'kennels') for:
 - Farm Buildings
 - Farming
 - Home Occupation
 - Intensive Farming
5. Consequential amendment to Rule 3.5.1 vii) to remove kennels from the list of discretionary activities in the Rural Zone.
6. Consequential amendment to the Explanation for the Rural Zone and Nodal Areas in Section 4 of the District Plan to remove reference to kennels as a non-complying activity in the Nodal Areas.
7. Consequential amendment to Section 3B Car Parking standards to refer to boarding, breeding and training kennels, and to state the number of car parks required.
